[國際合作] 政大推動台俄雙邊現代化研究

國科會為推動國內學術發展促進與俄羅斯學術合作，與俄羅斯基礎研究基金會(Russian Foundation for Basic Research, RFBR)簽署雙邊協議，雙方同意促進兩國科技交流。政大成立研究團隊，針對「第三波」民主化的浪潮席捲之下，新興民主國家急遽增加，雖同屬一黨體制的國家，但自1980年代以來台灣、俄羅斯及中國卻走向不同的民主化發展路線，計劃將從政治、社會、經濟層面等層面探討三國截然不同的現代化歷程及差異。該計畫由國科會資助，此外，政大也與俄羅斯科學院遠東研究所簽訂學術合作交流協議，雙方同意在三年期之研究計畫結束後，將台俄合作研究主題移向西伯利亞之經濟發展，及其對亞太地方之區域影響。

[International Cooperation] NCCU Attempts to Advance the Research on Modernization of Taiwan versus Russia

In order to promote the sci-tech and academic cooperation between Taiwan and Russia, NSC has signed a bilateral contract with Russian Foundation for Basic Research, RFBR, intending to invigorate the sci-tech interflow therebetween. NCCU sets a research team focusing on the issue how come, under the "Third Wave" of Democracy in which the number of new democracies increase rapidly, the three one-party autocratic nations Taiwan, Russia and China would have made different approaches of democratization. The project will analyze the issue with respects of politics, sociology and economics. The project is sponsored by NSC. Besides, NCCU has also signed an academic cooperation contract with the Far East Branch of Russian Academy of Sciences (FEB RAS), planning for a follow-up research on the economic development of West Siberia and its influence on Asian Pacific area.
