[Academic Activity] "Climate Change, Homeland Conservation and Taiwan Aborigines' Socio-cultural Vision Conference" Takes Place on 1st-September (Chinese Version)

88 Flood has inflicted great losses on South Taiwan especially on the aboriginal tribes. Academia Sinica – Institute of Ethnology with its long-term care for the aboriginal tribes' survival and development issues hosts a cross-field conference and invites many experts to dialogue from perspectives of "climate change," "policy" and "ethnic vision" these three aspects. The institute wishes to provide a platform for multiple thinking with regard to these issues to express its sincere care for its aboriginal academic partners. Press and the public are welcome to the conference!
