First Look: Nike Foamposite Max

With the success of the [\[url=http://www.nikeairmaxtilbuddanmark.com/\]](http://www.nikeairmaxtilbuddanmark.com/)Nike Air Max 90 Tilbud~~[/url]~~ line, Nike Sportswear is once again going back to a memorable era in the 90s when they achieved some of their greatest successes.

This time, Charles Barkley gets the call as Nike Sportswear will be dropping a hybrid pair entitled the Nike Foamposite Max CB34, which appears to be a mix of the old [\[url=http://www.nikeairmaxtilbuddanmark.com/\]](http://www.nikeairmaxtilbuddanmark.com/)Nike Air Max Danmark~~[/url]~~ with some Foam material on the side panels.

The concept behind [\[url=http://www.nikeairmaxtilbuddanmark.com/\]](http://www.nikeairmaxtilbuddanmark.com/)Nike Air Max 90~~[/url]~~ is similar to that Nike 1/2 Cent, which was also a combination of various technologies remixed with Penny Hardaway's classic sneakers.

Using a iridescent upper that is not unlike what is found in the [\[url=http://www.nikeairmaxtilbuddanmark.com/\]](http://www.nikeairmaxtilbuddanmark.com/)Nike Air Max~~[/url]~~ "Invisibility Cloak, the purple Foam and the black nubuck upper form a formidable combination that is broken up brilliantly by the hints of teal, making this also seem like a tribute pair to the old Charlotte Hornets. On the sole of the shoe is a message that reads out an infamous Barkley line and marketing campaign "I Am Not A Role Model."

Expect the [\[url=http://www.nikeairmaxtilbuddanmark.com/\]](http://www.nikeairmaxtilbuddanmark.com/)Nike Air Max 1~~[/url]~~ to be an elusive pair thanks to both fans who are genuinely excited for buying the kicks and those just looking to make a quick dollar and have no intention of wearing them. Stay tuned here for more release information as they become available.
