[\[好\]是\[更好\]的敵人!](#)

Hello, everyone:

I am a rookie just a few minutes.

It's a perfect website when one of my best friend introduced this to me.

Without consideration, I have become one of the member soon.

To be frank, I am taken this by surprise since I found that the website is different from others.

There are three points to say.

First, it is relatively "clear", contrary to some websites, like faceXXX, which is my favorite.

Second, it is a site that to talk over what is the real meaning of life in order to fulfill our dream in right way.

Last but never the least, the goal of the website is what I have yearned for and I hope it can help those who lose their life directions.

I wish that the MEPO website can go somewhere some day in the foreseeable future and benefit not a few people.

Hope that MEPO can found more topics, such as traveling, literature panelty discussion, to name just two.

Hope that MEPO can renew every day and have many activities so that we can meet each other and be best friends.

Why not do it and help he who need help in no time?

Let's create our society and I believe it attainable!!!
